

Caroline Grainger continues her series of walks in East Cleveland. Airy Hill Circular 3.5 miles. This walk starts at Skelton Green and follows part of the Cleveland Way over Airey Hill and then follows part of the Cleveland Street path from Slapwath to Hobdale. We hope you are enjoying these walks and would welcome any feedback that you have. Boots are recommended for this walk as it can be muddy beyond Airy Hill Farm.

1. From the bus stop at the top of Skelton Green bank (bus 48/49 Redcar Lingdale) follow Airy Hill Lane to farm.
2. Pass through gates, follow path with wall on the left.
3. At path junction turn left (Cleveland Way sign post) along narrow path and descend steps to Slapwath.
4. Take lane on left side of Fox & Hounds (Cleveland Street sign post.) All gates and stiles from here to main road have Cleveland Street direction sign on them.
5. Cross stile & cross field veering towards the left.
6. After crossing stile enter field to left of hedge and head towards top left of hedge and head towards top left hand corner of field.
7. Turn left at main road

